ORDER:

The Joint Director, Directorate of Ex-servicemen Welfare, has stated that the Government of India have recognised the Diploma Course in Civil Engineering conducted at the College of Military Engineering, Pune, for appointment to subordinate posts under Central Government. The above course is yet to be recognised by the Government of Tamil Nadu for appointment purposes. Hence, the Ex-servicemen who obtained Diploma in Civil Engineering in the College of Military Engineering, Pune, are deprived of getting employment assistance under State Government Departments. He has therefore, requested the Government to recognise the Diploma in Civil Engineering awarded by the College of Military Engineering, Pune, for appointment to the posts for which Diploma in Civil Engineering is essential.

2. The request for recognition of the course was placed before the Committee constituted for the purpose in G.O.Ms.No.441, Personnel and Administrative Reforms Department, dated 20.12.93 under the Chairmanship of Chairman, Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission, for its recommendation.

3. The Committee in its meeting held on 3.1.96 has resolved to recommend to Government to recognise the Diploma in Civil Engineering awarded by the College of Military Engineering at Pune for the purpose of recruitment to posts in Public Services. The Chief Engineer (General), Public Works Department, has also accepted the recommendations of the Committee.

4. The Government, after careful examination, have decided to accept the recommendation of the Committee and accordingly direct that the Diploma in Civil Engineering awarded by the College of Military Engineering, Pune, be recognised for the purpose of recruitment of Ex-Servicemen to posts in Public Services.
