1. G.O.Ms.No.441, Personnel and Administrative Reforms (Per.R)Department, dt. 20.12.1993.
2. From the Secretary, Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission Letter No.6362/B2/89, dated 28.2.1994.
3. From the Secretary, Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission Ir.No.6190/PD-D3/93, dt.19.1.1995.

ORDER:

According to the Special Rules for the Tamil Nadu Public Health Service, among others, a diploma in Public Health has been prescribed as a qualification for the post of Health Officer. However, candidates selected without Public Health qualification should pass the Diploma in Public Health within a period of four years from the date of their appointment. The Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission had recommended to Government that the Diplomate of National Board under Community Health Discipline conducted by the National Board of Examination, New Delhi, may be considered as equivalent to the Diploma in Public Health. This matter was placed before the committee constituted in G.O.Ms.No.441, Personnel and Administrative Reforms(Per.R)Department, dated 20.12.1993 for its concurrence. The Secretary, Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission has stated that the committee at its meeting held on 14.12.1994 has resolved to recommend to Government for recognition of the Diplomate of National Board under Community Health Discipline for purpose of employment in Public Service for which recruitment is made in consultation with the commission and for treating the above said qualification as equivalent to the Diploma in Public Health Course.
