5. Government Letter No.25264/R/95-5, Personnel and Administrative Reforms (R) Department, dated 6.8.99.
6. From the Secretary, Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission, Letter No.5561/RND-F1/95, dated 19.11.99.

I am directed to state that in the letter first cited, the Government of India have recognised the Certificate in the Trade of Radio Fitter which is made equivalent to Diploma in Radio/Electronics and Communication Engineering for the purpose of employment. Based on the above order, you have requested the Government to recognise the Trade of Radio Fitter (Indian Air Force) as equivalent to Diploma in Electronics / Radio and Communication Engineering. The above request was forwarded to the Secretary, Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission, for placing it before the Committee constituted in G.O.Ms.No.441, Personnel and Administrative Reforms Department, dated 20.12.93.

2. The subject matter was placed before the Committee in its meeting held on 3.1.96 and 2.1.98 and the Committee has resolved to recommend that recognition of a pass in Radio Fitter Trade Examinations of Indian Air Force can be equated to Diploma in Electronics and Communication for the purpose of Employment only, on the same pattern as in G.O.Ms.No.418, Personnel and Administrative Reforms Department, dated 26.9.90, etc., and not for the purpose of Higher Education.

OSTIASI

3. In the Government Order fourth cited, orders have been issued for the automatic acceptance of equivalence of various Military Trades with that of Civil Trades as published by the Government of India for the purpose of employment in Public Services in this State. The Secretary, Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission, has also stated in the letter fifth cited that the above Government Order may be adopted in the case of equivalence of qualification in Radio Fitter Trade Examinations of Indian Air Force to Diploma in Electronics and Communications.

4. In view of above position, it is considered that the Radio Fitter of Indian Air Force is automatically recognised and equated to Diploma in Electronics for the purpose of Employment in Public Service.
